KALAPULA NATION

ROYAL PROCLAMATION OF THE FOUNDING OF THE NATIONAL MUSEUM & CULTURAL PRESERVATION DIVISION

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A – Corvallis, Oregon

Filed by: Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV

Date: August 8, 2025

By Command of the Chief, Sovereign of the Kalapula Nation, Keeper of the Valley of Return, and Flame-Bearer of the Restored People:

Let it be known to all lands and ages that on this day, the Kalapula Nation declares the immediate creation of the National Museum & Cultural Preservation Division — a sacred arm of our sovereignty charged with reclaiming, guarding, and illuminating the memory of our people.

Like the ancient kings who raised marble and fire to proclaim the glory of their empires, we shall raise a hall — be it stone, timber, or glass — where every child of the Kalapula and every seeker of truth may walk amidst the breath of our ancestors.

This Division is hereby tasked with:

- Securing a permanent location to serve as our national museum and cultural center, within our ancestral valley.

- Assembling a team of historians, artisans, and cultural guardians to gather, verify, and present the true history of the Kalapula Nation.

- Acquiring and restoring artifacts, records, and relics — from ancient tools and textiles to treaties and testimonies — that bear witness to our sovereignty and survival.

- Creating a living archive, both physical and digital, so that no empire, court, or wind of time can again erase our memory.

- Securing sustainable financing — through donations, sovereign revenue, grants, and international cultural partnerships — to ensure the eternal protection and expansion of the Museum and its works.

Let this division move swiftly, for time is the enemy of all nations who sleep. The valley waits for her stories to be spoken again.

And to those who would doubt — look upon the archives of the Kalapula Nation and know this: our memory is law, our presence is truth, and our return is destiny.
